It is certified that error appears in the above-identified patent and that said Letters Patent is hereby corrected as shown below:

In column 3, cancel lines 26 and 27 and substitute the following therefor:
--contribution.

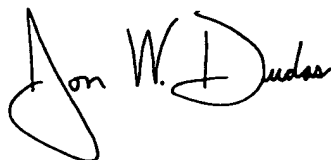

The above object also is achieved in accordance with the breathing apparatus that operates according to the above-described method.--

In column 5, line 24, after "a second gas inlet 12B." insert: --The gases are then mixed into a selected respiratory gas in a first regulator 14. One gas inlet would be sufficient if the respiratory gas was mixed outside the apparatus. More gas inlets can be used where the respiratory gas is to consist of more than two gases. In this embodiment air and oxygen are used as gases.--

In claim 5 at column 8, line 25, cancel "and a" and substitute --index-- therefor.
